

www.paresearchcenter.org

PARC TOPIC EXPERT ADVISORS

The following group of individuals with expertise in key topics and high-risk race/ethnic groups provided expert input into identifying and refining PARC's high-priority research topics.

Advisor	Organization	Expertise
Jill Birnbaum	Voices for Healthy Kids	Cross-Cutting
Stephen Cook	University of Rochester Medical Center	Health Care Providers &
		Business/Industry
Kristen Copeland	Cincinnati Children's Hospital Medical	Infant, Child, Adolescent Development
	Center	(includes school setting)
Carter Headrick	Voices for Healthy Kids	Cross-Cutting
Valarie Jernigan	University of Oklahoma Health Sciences	Disparities/Native American
	Center	Populations
Michelle Mottola	University of Western Ontario, Exercise	Pregnancy & Maternal Health and Pregnancy Lab
Norma Olvera	University of Houston, Comparative	Disparities/Latino Populations
	Cultural Studies
Jim Pivarnik	Michigan State University, College of	Pregnancy & Maternal Health
	Human Medicine
Amelie Ramirez	Salud America!, University of Texas	Disparities/Latino Populations
	Health Science Center, San Antonio
Brian Saelens	Seattle Children's Hospital, Center for	Behavioral Economics
	Child Health, Behavior and Development
Tom Schmid	Centers for Disease Control and	Cross-Cutting
	Prevention
Matthew Trowbridge	University of Virginia School of Medicine	Infant, Child, Adolescent Development (includes school setting)
Renee Umstattd	Baylor University	Disparities/Rural Populations
Meyer
Jean Wiecha	RTI International	Out-of-School Settings
Nsedu Obto	Children's Environmental Health Network	Cross-Cutting
Witherspoon
Stella Yi	New York University School of Medicine	Disparities/Asian American & Pacific
		Islander Populations

We will update the PARC Research Agenda in Spring 2018. If you are interested in providing input, please contact the PARC Coordinating Center at scspoon@ucsd.edu.